1. [] Received a call from J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, who asked for the names, if possible, of the [] travelling with the "sugar cane group" now living at the expense of the naturalization service in New Orleans. I told Sourwine I would relay his question and be back in touch with him.

3. [] At the urging of [] I conferred again with J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, in an effort to determine the timing on Senator Eastland's placing in the Congressional Record the recent correspondence from Petr S. Deryabin. Sourwine repeated that the letter was in Senator Eastland's hands and he expected the Senator to place it in the Record on Monday or Tuesday, but Sourwine emphasized again that he could not make a commitment for the Senator on this. [] of the Senator's action. I checked with [] preferred not to go that far at this time. He said the appearance of the material in the Monday or Tuesday Record would be quite sufficient.

In response to his query earlier in the day, I advised Sourwine that the only information we had been able to develop on the "sugar cane group"
